In Memory of Clementine Chambers

Another link in Friendship's chain broken and we are again reminded of the uncertainty of life and of the necessity of being prepared when the final summons comes.

Sister Chambers is gone. No more we shall hear her gentle voice or see her pleasant smile, day by day the sun sets and the evening shadows fall, the flowers bloom and leave their fragrance, then wither and fade away, but like their perfume her memory we will ever cherish.

Resolved, that to her family we come with all that defines "Rebekah" and pray they accept our love and sincere sympathy in this their hour of their bereavement. God bless them and give them strength to bear their sorrow courageously.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and spread upon our minutes and that the usual lodge formalities be observed. Fraternally submitted,

Emily Pogue,
Elizabeth Parcell,
Clara W. Clement.
